Description of Case study:-

Simran is 15 years old girl; her father does labor work and mother house wife, they are four siblings. Earlier she used to study in government school but poor economic condition compelled her parents to cancel the admission. They were very sad for taken decision against girl education but it was the demand of situation. Now Simran used to ask her parents about her enrollment in other school but parents had no answer. As the time passed by she started to forget academic-activities which was not good for her future and parents were also worried on academic-loss.

Later Programme Officer, PC and Supervisor visited the village and did home visits to evaluate the success of the project; assess three children. At the same time her (Simran) father saw PC and asked about the visit, PC clarified the main objective of this programme. Consequently Fool Singh Ji called her daughter and introduces with PC and Supervisor, acknowledging her talent Project Coordinator recommend her name in nearest Learning centre (Poothi). After getting admission Simran was very happy. Due to the long gap initially she faced some difficulties in understanding but as we know that she was good student and loves to study, so she recovered all forgotten academic activities in short time. Her learning progress compel her parents to keep her study continue and now she is studying in 9th class at nearby Government College.

Spoken comment of her family:-

They said credit goes to IIMPACT-SAINT GOBAIN-SPECTRA, did fabulous job because these learning centers not only changed our thinking but also broken stereotype (why should a girl being educated) of many parents who were against the girl child education.
