

Case study

Name: - Meena

Husband Name: - Tara Chand

Age:- 33

Gender:-Female

Village: - Sainthli, Alwar

MEENA who lived in sainthli village, block- Kisangarh Bas of Alwar district. Her husband name is Tara Chand, who working in his own field. Meena has 1 daughter ,read in class 11 and 2 son they read in class VII & V. Meena working as a pashu sakhi in SPECTRA organization since 2016. Meena who is a member of SHG namely Spectra Khwaja SHG which is form by SPECTRA organization.

Before joining group Meena depends on her husband. She has no knowledge about animal husbandry related work. In the year 06.06.2014 she joined group.

After that she knows about pashu sakhi. She was interest for this work but her family was not support her, in that time economical condition was very poor in their family. After so many problems finally she joined in SPECTRA Organization as a pashu sakhi. She was attending different Pashu Sakhi training in Alwar, through this type of training she aware about medicine, vaccine, de warming etc. In the beginning stage; she faced many problems from her family as well as community. After that she started work in village level, at first she treatment animal in her house. Then she out from home for treatment. Now she went another village for treatment and earn 6000/- per month through this work. Now Meena's family totally support her. She was very thankful to SPECTRA for gave her this opportunity.

